

Dor Hadash Erev Shabbat Service outline

Introduction
		We begin the Erev Shabbat service gathered around the Oneg table. The service leader begins with an introductory reading of their choosing (pgs. 732-739) or a song or niggun to set the mood. Welcome everyone. Invite the Oneg hosts to light the Shabbat candles.
5		Hadlakat Neirof (Blessing over the candles)	Oneg hosts
		Read the blessing in English (pg. 4) and one of the next two paragraphs, or other poems/readings for candlelighting (pgs. 2, 797 or 732).
		Optional for the service leader to read page 116 as an introduction to the Kiddush.
109 & 119		The chazan chants the Kiddush , beginning on page 109 (1 st paragraph) and continuing on page 119.
13		Shalom Aleichem	Sing together and move to sanctuary
		Optional to sing Yedid Nefesh (7) and/or Dodi Li (19)
KABBALAT SHABBAT
21		Psalm 95: Lechu Neranenah	Sing 1 st 4 lines
25 27		Psalm 96: Shiru la'Adonai Yismechu ha'Shamayim	Sing 1 st 2 lines (pg 25) Sing 1 st line (pg. 27)
		Generally we don't include Psalms 97, 98, 99 – but the Service Leader is welcome to read portions
37		Psalm 29: Havu la'Adonai	Sing
41 - 47		Lecha Dodi
		Our minhag is to sing 5 stanzas. The 1 st (pg 41); 2 nd (pg 43, top); 5 th (pg 45, top); 8 th & 9 th (pg 47). For the final verse we stand and face the entrance to the sanctuary.
49 51		Psalm 92: Mizmor Shir Le'Yom HaShabbat Tzaddik Ka'Tamar	Sing 1 st 3 lines (pg 49) Sing at * (pg. 51)
55		Chatzi Kaddish	Chazan leads
MA'ARIV SERVICE
SHEMA AND ITS BLESSINGS:
57		Barchu: (The Call to Worship)	stand Chazan & Cong responds
		Ma'ariv Aravim: (Brachah One: Creation)
58-60		Select either the Traditional (58) or the Interpretive (60) version of Asher Bidvaro to be read in English by the leader, a guest reader or the congregation.
59		Chazan chants the Chatimah (pg. 59)
		Ahavat Olam: (Brachah Two: Revelation)
61-63		Select either the Traditional (62) or the Interpretive (61) version of Ahavat Olam to be read in English by the leader, a guest reader or the congregation. Or sing in Hebrew (63) Chazan chants the Chatimah (pg. 63)
65		Shema	Congregation sings
65		V'ahavta	Congregation sings
		Leader: "Please continue silently, reading Biblical selection 1 (66) or Biblical selection 2 (68)"
73		Chazan continues chanting on page 73. We end by chanting in unison "Adonai elohaichem emet"
		Ge'ulah: (Brachah Three: Redemption)
75		Emet Ve'Emunah	Sing 1 st 4 words or Pgs 74, 76 as a responsive reading. Other suggested readings on P. 748, 767-771, 800

77		"Moshe u'Miriyam ..." (last line on pg 77)		Chazan chants
79		Mi Chamocha:		Congregation sings
80		Hashkivenu		Read together in English
81		Chazan chants the Chatima
85		Veshamru		Congregation sings
87		Chatzi Kaddish		Chazan chants
AMIDAH:
		Invite the Congregation to rise in preparation for the silent Amidah. Remind the congregation to read the inserts for special Shabbatot when appropriate. There are alternative Amidot which are listed at the top of P 90. The Amidah is an opportunity for private prayer and personal meditation. It is also the appropriate time for silently saying a Misheberach prayer for healing, for those in need. Please be seated at the conclusion of your prayers.
91, 95		1. Avot: Ancestors; 2. Gevurot: Might; 3. Kedusha: Sanctification
97		*4. KEDUSHAT HAYOM
99, 101, 105, 107		5. Avodah: Worship; 6. Hoda'ah: Thanksgiving; 7. Birkat Shalom: The Blessing of Peace. Concluding Meditation
105		Shalom Rav (pg. 105) or other song or reading for peace		Congregation sings
111		Magen Avot (optional)		Congregation sings
		Prayers for the upcoming Rosh Chodesh (New Month) Please consult a Jewish calendar. If the calendar indicates that Rosh Chodesh begins on a Sunday through Thursday following the Shabbat service that you are leading, these special prayers are recited) Pages 424-427 . Chazan leads Sedra Review. Leader introduces the reviewer of this week's Torah portion (Sedra) and takes a seat during the presentation. On Friday nights when we have a Speaker the service leader should prepare a 2 minute summary of the Torah portion
CONCLUDING PRAYERS:
121		Aleinu:	stand	Congregation sings
		Kaddish Yatom: Mourner's Prayer
128		In reciting the Kaddish..." The Leader adds, " Tonight we remember those whose yahrzeits are at this time. " Read names from the weekly email list of those whose yahrzeits are this week. When you are finished reading the names, you may ask if anyone would like to say the names of others that they are remembering. Then, conclude with " Will those who mourn or are observing a yahrzeit and those who wish to remember the departed, please rise. "
131		Mourner's Kaddish		Chazan leads
		Announcements
		1. Include a thank you to the Oneg Shabbat host(s), sedra reviewer, and chazan. 2. Also announce the speaker and title of the talk to follow after the closing song. 3. Ask if there are any congregational announcements and mention the date and time of the next service. 4. Finally, be sure to ask any guests or new members to introduce themselves and welcome them again to our service
133		Adon Olam		Congregation
Shabbat Shalom!				